

Winter Concert Checklist

For Intermediate and Advanced Band

In preparation for this concert, percussionists will rehearse with the wind bands during the school days leading up to the performance. Teachers have the right to refuse to allow students to leave during their class time. Percussionists are reminded to keep their grades up and their work done.