Gersiew

AMH2010 is the history of the United States to 1865 This course is a survey of US history from settlement until the Civil War The emphasis of the course will be on the development of American social, political, and economic institutions, problems of the new government; Jacksonian Democracy, territorial expansion and the coming of the Civil War.

