

Go over your class notes EVERY DAY. The more you review, the more you'll retain. Don't wait until the night before the test to go over your notes. It's important to review your notes every day. Don't wait until the night before the test to go over your notes. It's important to review your notes every day.

